

HARMONIZING ACCREDITATION REPORTING

A SYMPHONY OF TOOLS

David Onder

2025 SACSCOC Annual Meeting

The Score: Our Objectives

Understand

The integration of Microsoft Teams, Quarto, and PowerShell for accreditation purposes.

Learn

Practical steps for transforming document editing and data extraction into a seamless workflow.

Discover

How to create web and PDF outputs that meet reviewers' needs efficiently.

Who is the Conductor?

~1,400 Students (Fall 2025 Enrollment)

Setting the Stage: Context & Criteria

The Constraints

We perform within strict boundaries:

- Minimal Costs (Budget-friendly)
- Existing Toolset (Teams, Word)
- Minimal Installs (Only Quarto & Pandoc)

The Goal

To produce a flawless performance:

- ★ Create both Website and PDF
- ★ Source directly from Word Docs
- ★ Ensure a cohesive output

Meet the Orchestra

MS Teams

The Collaboration
Hall. Where the musicians gather.

MS Word

The Instruments.
Familiar tools for composition.

PowerShell

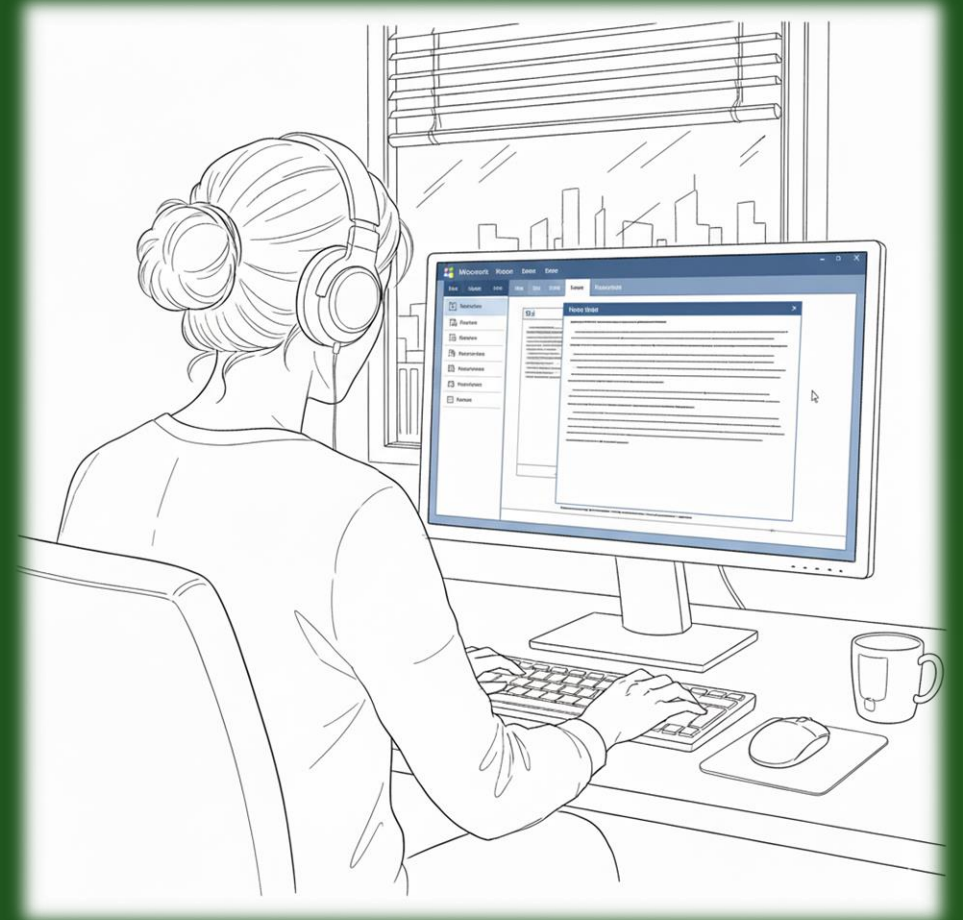

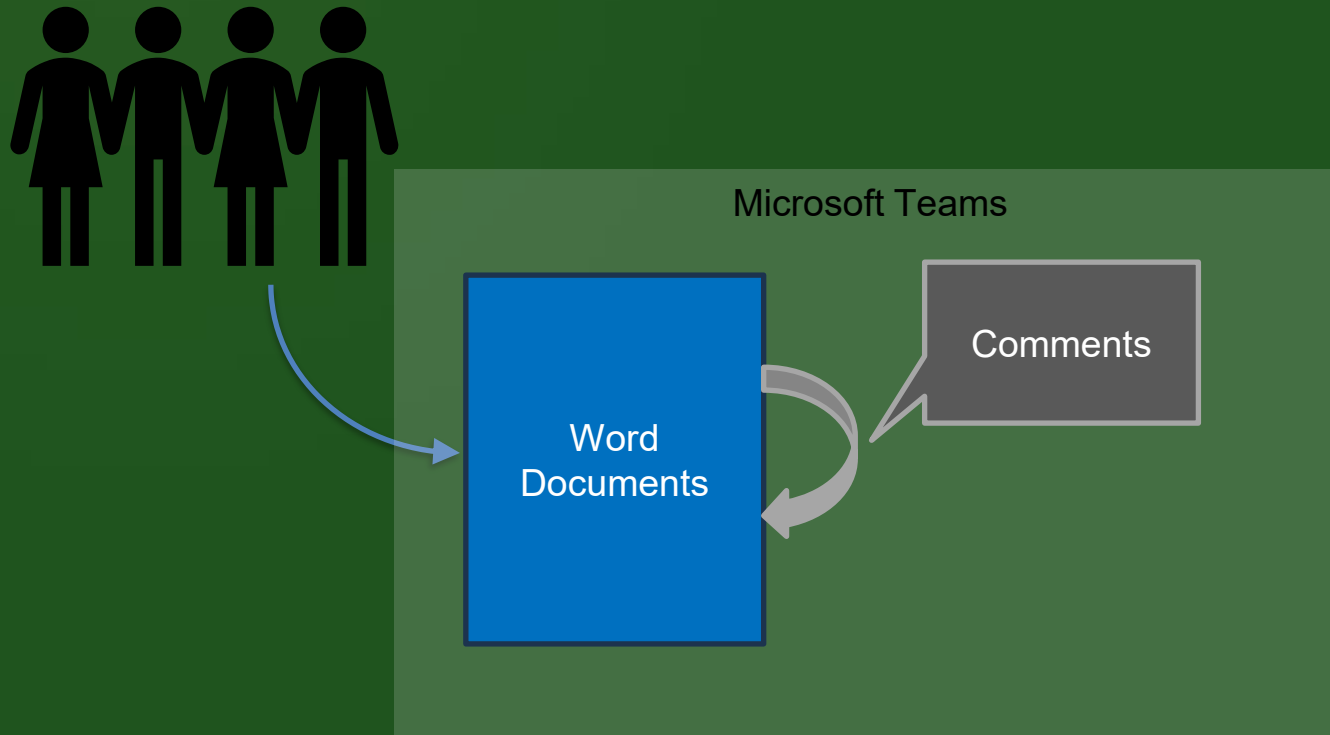

The Conductor.
Orchestrates the flow of data.

Quarto

The Acoustics.
Renders the final sound (Web & PDF).

Meet the Orchestra – Flow

Question 1

What barriers would you face utilizing Microsoft Teams and Word?

Microsoft Teams - Overview

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Teams application interface. On the left, the navigation pane shows the 'Teams' tab selected, with a list of channels under the 'Accreditation' team. The 'SACSCOC Fifth Year Report' channel is highlighted. The main area shows the 'Files' view of this channel, displaying a list of documents and folders. The 'Standard 10.9' document is currently selected.

The Rehearsal: Syncing folders

Organization: Haywood Community College
Team: Accreditation
Channel: SACSCOC Fifth Year Report

The screenshot illustrates the process of syncing a folder from a OneDrive channel to a local file explorer. A red circle highlights the 'SACSCOC Fifth Year Report' folder in the OneDrive interface. A red arrow points from this folder to a corresponding folder in the local file explorer. In the file explorer, the breadcrumb path is 'Haywood Community College > Accreditation - SACSCOC Fifth Year Report -', with the last part circled in red. Below the breadcrumb, a table lists the contents of the folder.

Backstage Mechanics: Configuration

Just as a stage needs setup, our output needs configuration.

- ⚙️ _quarto.yml: The master plan. No changes needed for default setup.
- 📄 _quarto-website.yml: Controls the HTML experience. Update contact info and logos here.
- 🎨 custom.scss: "Sassy" CSS. Defines the look and feel (colors, fonts) of the performance.

Backstage Mechanics: Sample _quarto-pdf.yml

project:
  type: book

render:
  - index.qmd
  - overview.qmd
  - leadership.qmd
  - Support.qmd
  - requirements/*.qmd
  - QEP-Impact-Report.qmd

The Conductor's Platform

Executing ``convert_and_render.bat``

This script is the baton drop that starts the show.

Step 1: The Translation (Pandoc)

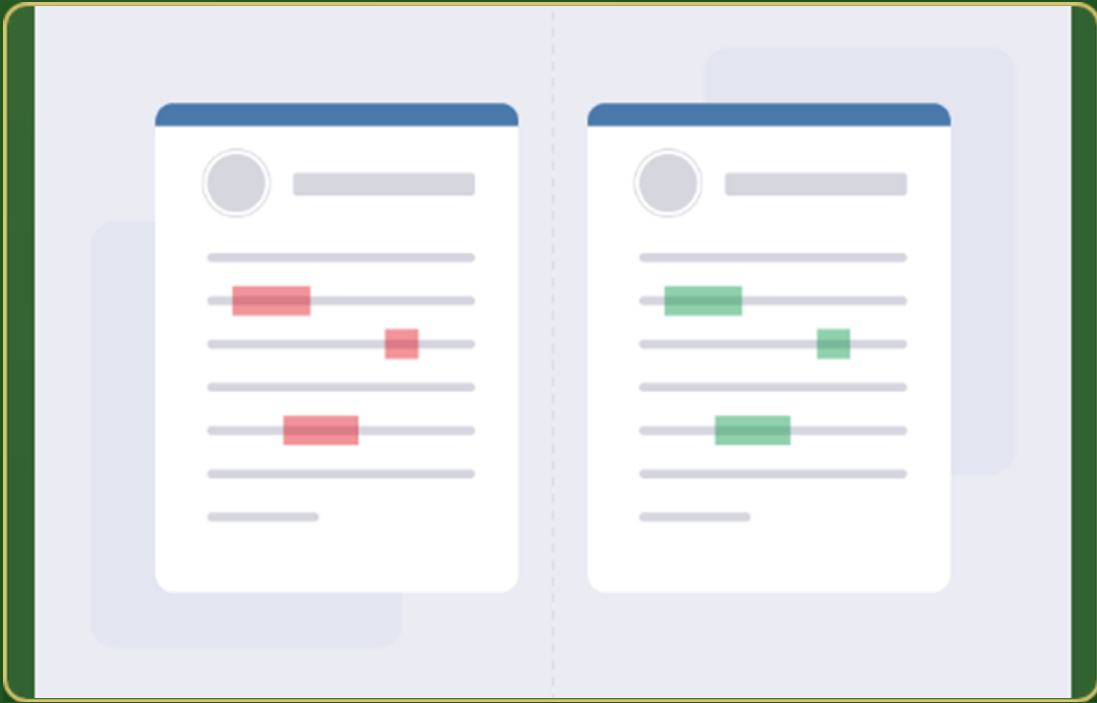

It first converts raw Microsoft Word documents into Markdown. This strips away the chaos of formatting, leaving pure content.

Step 2: The Rendering (Quarto)

It then takes that Markdown and conducts it into two distinct harmonies: a polished Website and a professional PDF.

The Performance: Dual Outputs

Two Formats, One Source

From the single source of truth (Word Docs), we generate:

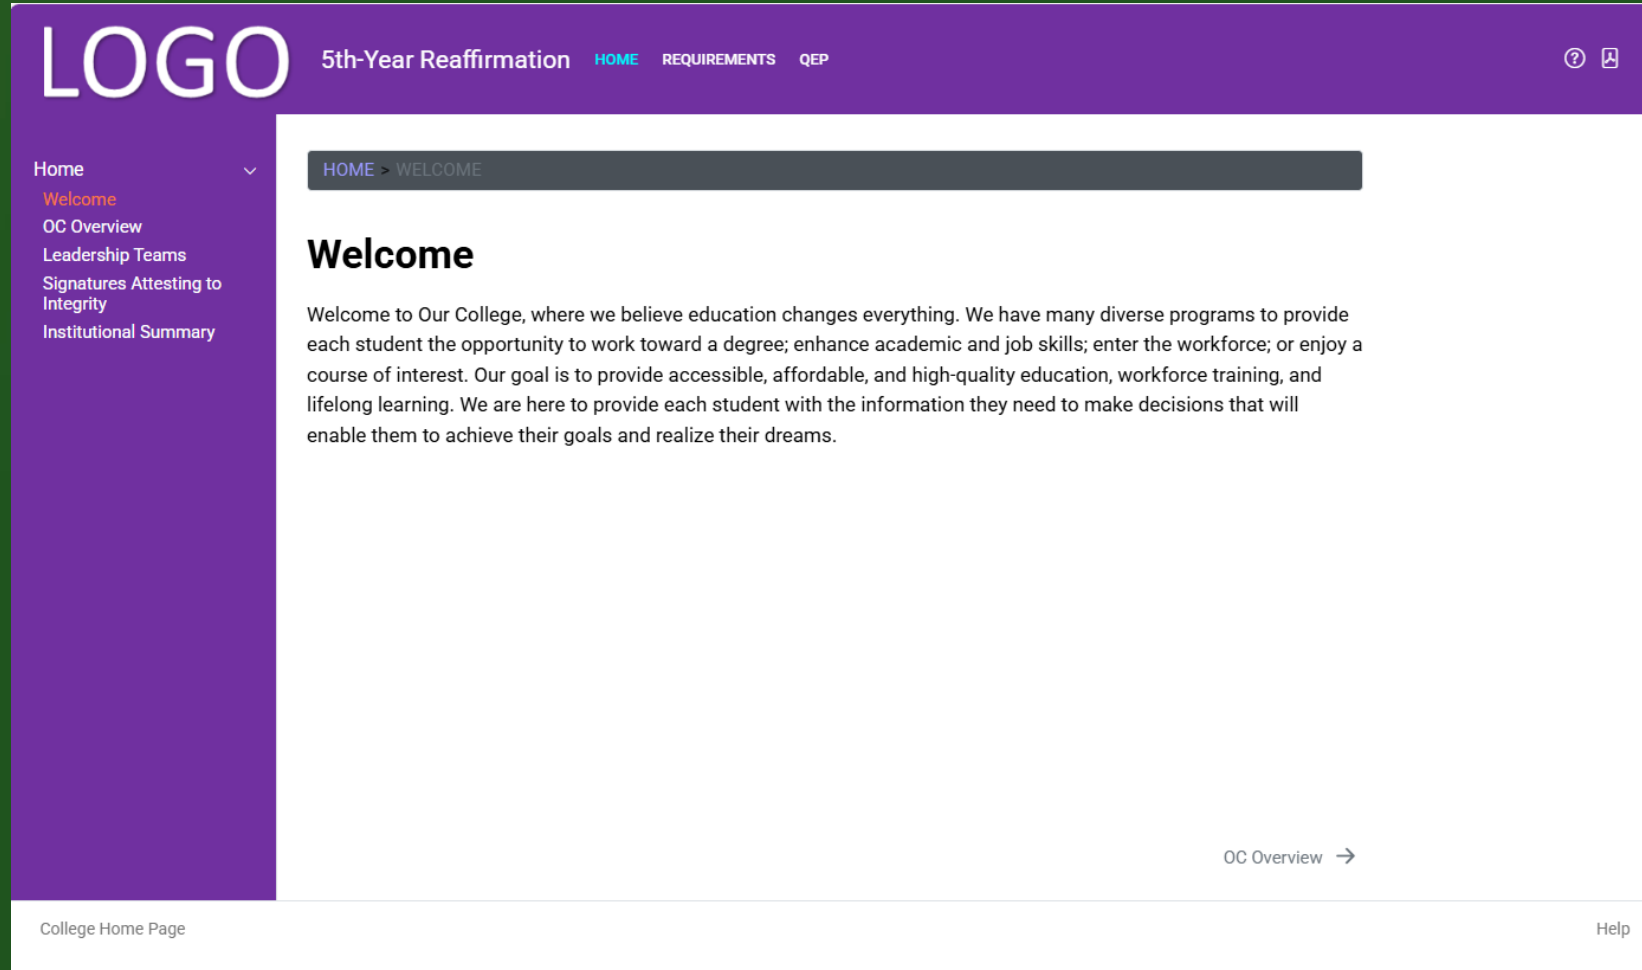

1. The Website:

Interactive, navigable, and perfect for digital review.

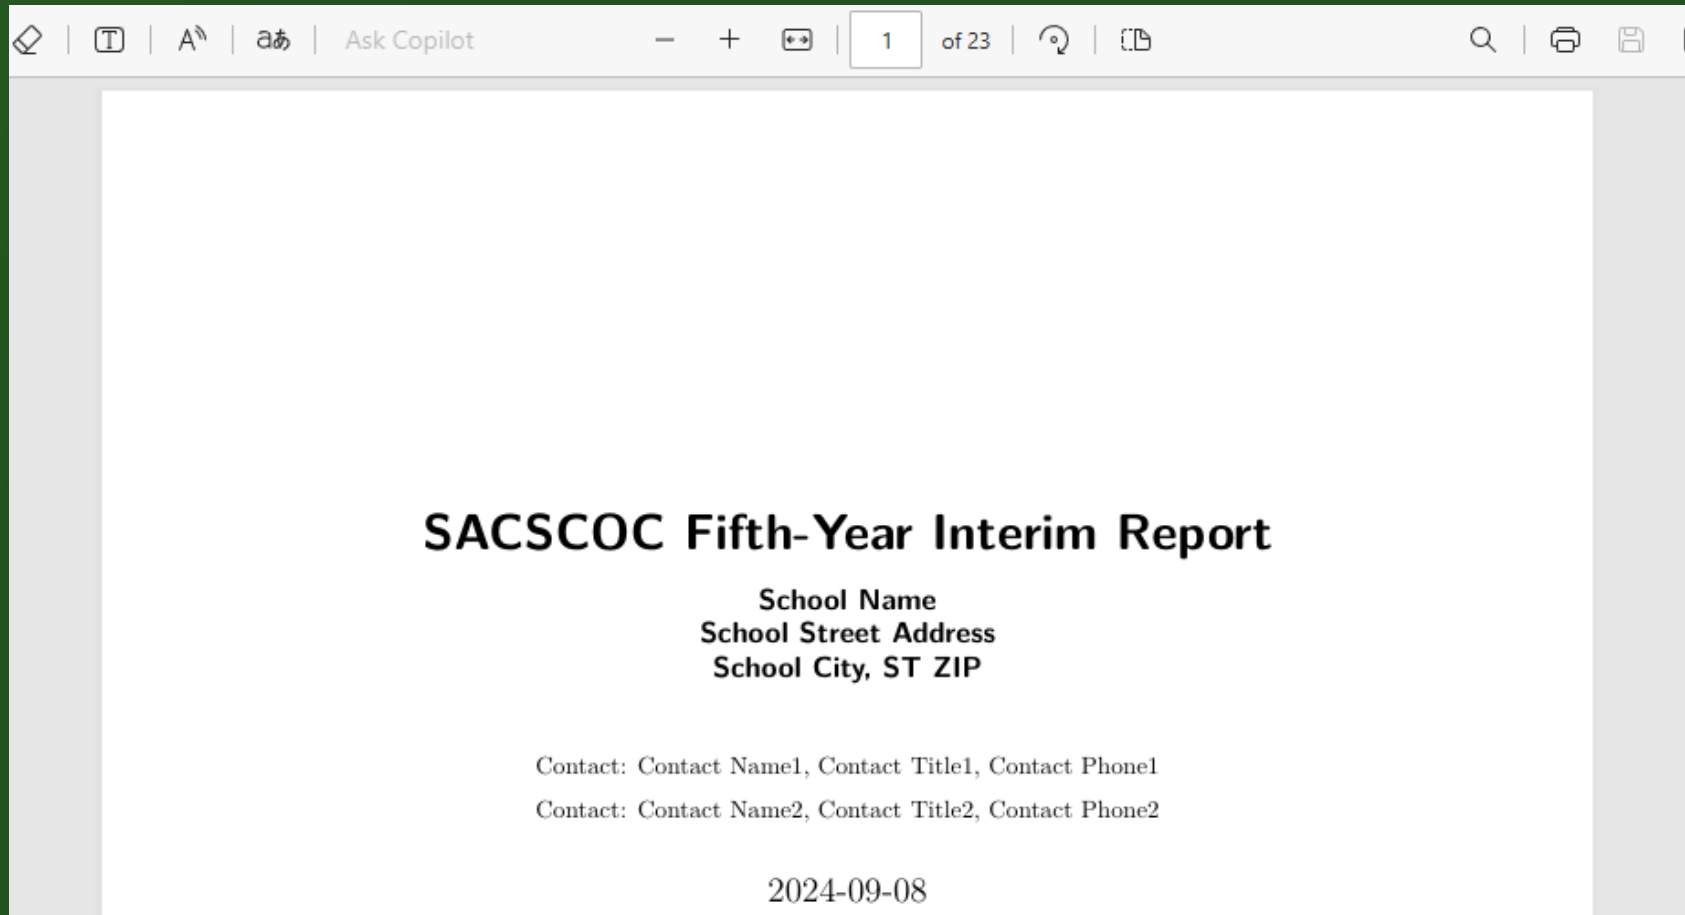

2. The PDF:

Traditional, archival, and meets standard submission requirements.

The Performance: Dual Outputs - Website

The Performance: Dual Outputs - PDF

Question 2

What barriers would you face utilizing pandoc and Quarto?

Harmony vs. Dissonance

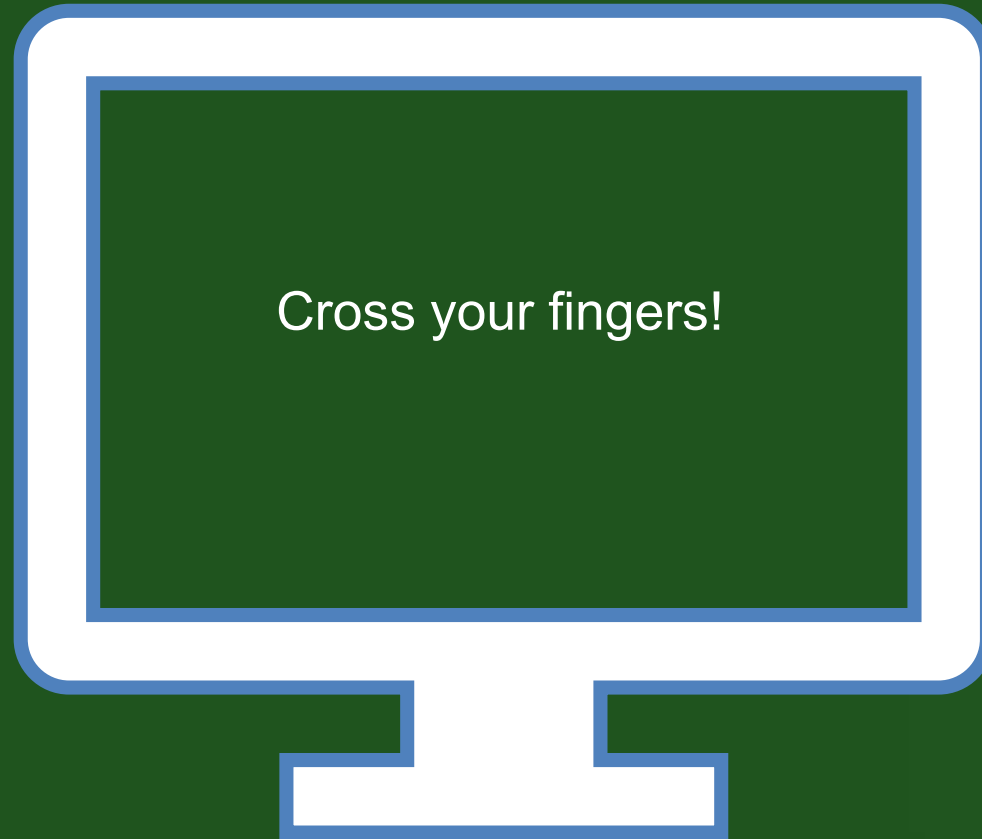

🎵 Harmony (Pros)

- ✓ No additional costs
- ✓ Familiar tools (Word) for staff
- ✓ Automated review notifications

⚠️ Dissonance (Cons)

- ✗ Backend requires tech setup
- ✗ Google ecosystem incompatibility?
- ✗ Primarily tested on Windows

Live Demo

Recap Question

- Where do you go to get started?
- What tools do you need to download?
- What tools do you already need to have in place?

Encore: Key Takeaways

- ★ Integration: Seamlessly blends familiar tools (Word/Teams) with powerful automation.
- ★ Automation: "Conductor" scripts handle the heavy lifting, converting chaos into order.
- ★ Transparency: A customizable workflow that keeps everyone on the same page.
